GOV. BRADFORD'S LETTER TO GOV. WINTHROP

THE MAYFLOWER DESCENDANT

Vol. IX JANUARY, 1907 No. 1

GOVERNOR BRADFORD'S LETTER TO GOVERNOR WINTHROP

Transcribed from the Original Document,

BY GEORGE ERNEST BOWMAN

IN the Chamberlain Collection at the Boston Public Library is an ancient letter which will be of great interest to a large proportion of those who can trace their descent from Pilgrim ancestry. This letter, dated 6 February, 1631 (16 February, 1632, new style), is in the well-known handwriting of Governor William Bradford, and on the fourth page was addressed by him as follows: "To o^{r} Worp^{ll} good freinds m^{r} Winthrop Gove^{r} of the Massachusetts & the rest of the Counssell ther." It was signed by Governor Bradford, also by Capt. Myles Standish, Thomas Prence (afterwards Governor of Plymouth Colony), Doctor Samuel Fuller and John Alden. As Thomas Prence had married Patience, the daughter of Elder William Brewster, and the letter contains references to Edward Winslow (afterwards Governor of Plymouth Colony), and to Richard Church, who married Elizabeth, the daughter of Richard Warren, this document, which is reproduced in half-tone as the frontispiece of this issue, will be of especial interest to the thousands of descendants of the Bradford, Standish, Brewster, Fuller, Alden, Winslow and Warren families.

As shown by the illustration, the letter is well preserved, although somewhat stained. The date "1631" on the upper left-hand corner is a modern addition in pencil. The document contains four pages, twelve and three-fourths by seven and seven-eighths inches in size. The letter is on the first page, the second and third pages are blank, and the address was written on the fourth page, after folding.

[GOVERNOR BRADFORD TO GOVERNOR WINTHROP]

Gentlemen, and Worthyly beloved Freinds.

We have now at length returned an Answer to your letter dated the . 26 . of July (The reason we have so longe deffered y^e^ same, is because we have had no courte till y^e^ last month being Januarie) The sume wherof is this : that we are willing to curesponde with you in this, or any other neborly course, so fare as may no way be prejudicall to any, or swarve from y^e^ rules of equitie . how fare m^r^ Winslow expreste y^t^ agreement you intimate we know not (seeing he is absente) but our meaning, & former practiss, was & hath been, only of shuch as come to dwell, & inhabite, whether as servants, or free men; and not of soujournours w^ch^ come but for a seasone, with a purpose to returne . yet if any abuse should grow hereby ; we shall agree to any good order for the preventing or redressing of y^e^ same ; provided the way be left open for pore men to releve ther wants, And for mutuall help to both plantations. We have therfore given warning in open courte to all our people ; not to receive any as servants, or other dwellers with them, but to acquainte us first therwith that we may inquire of their certificates or dismisions ; but we have sett no penealtie upon it as yett, because we hope ther shall be noe need if ther be we have libertie to punish shuch things at our discretions ; if that will not serve ; when we understand what penealtie you apointe in the case, we shall doe y^e^ like, or y^t^ which shall be equivelente unto it. As for the instances you give ; we find that John Philips when he came was sicke & if he had not been by some received to house he had been in danger to have perished, he aledged he was sent by his maister to seeke a servise ; yet as a servente he was not entertained by any ; till his maister came and sould his time, (not to him y^t^ gave him house roome) but to him that would give most, so he had no cause to complaine . for John Pickworth he came but as a soujournour to worke for a few weeks, in wch time he goate a wife, & so is longe since returned duble, & hath no cause to complaine, excepte he hath goot a bad wife. Richard Church came likewise ass a soujournour to worke for y^e^ present ; though he is still hear residente longer then he purposed ; And what he will doe, neither, we nor I thinke him selfe knowes ; but if he resolve here to setle we shall require of him to procure a dismision ; but he did affirme to us at y^e^ first, that he was one of m^r^ webbs men, & freed to goe for England or whither he would, y^e^ w^ch^ we y^e^ rather beleved because he came to us frome wessagasscusett upon y^e^ falling out with his partt-ner; for others intimated, we know none (thoug[h] we have inquired) but they had a dismission either to come hither, or goe for England. Now ther are diverce goone from hence, to dwell and inhabite with you, as Clement Brigges . John Hill, John Eedy, daniell ray, &c . the which if either you, or they desire thir dismissions; we shall be redy to give them; hopeing you will doe the like; in the like cases, though we have heard something otherwise. Thus with our prayers to y^e^ Lord for your prosperity, as our owne, and our harty salutations unto you all we rest your assured loving freinds

The report of the General Board of Assistants was then read by the Secretary General pro tem. On motion duly made and seconded, it was Voted: That the report of the General Board of Assistants be accepted and placed on file.

On motion duly made and seconded, it was Voted: That notice be served upon the Society in Minnesota that unless it complies with the provisions of the Constitution on or before January 1, 1907, their charter shall be revoked.

The matter of the change in the rosette came up for discussion, and upon motion duly made and seconded, it was Voted: That this matter be laid on the table for future action.

On motion duly made and seconded, it was Voted: That the vote directing the printing of 3,500 copies of the Constitution and By-Laws in book form, passed at the Third General Congress, be rescinded.

On motion duly made and seconded, it was Voted: That the proceedings of this Congress be printed in the January number of "The Mayflower Descendant," at an expense not to exceed $200, which the Treasurer General is hereby authorized to pay to the Massachusetts Society for printing and mailing a copy to each member of the General Society.

The matter of the change of Article VII, Section 2, of the Constitution was discussed at length, and on motion duly made and seconded, it was Voted: That the Secretary General be instructed to send notices in regard to Constitutional amendments by registered mail hereafter.

On motion duly made and seconded, it was Voted: That the matter of the change in the Constitution be postponed for further consideration.

On motion duly made and seconded, it was Voted: That instructions be given to the Treasurer General to pay all expenses incurred in connection with the Fourth General Congress.

On motion duly made and seconded it was Voted: To adjourn to 2.30 P.M.

After singing "America" the meeting was declared adjourned.

September 6, 1906, 2.30 P.M.

Met pursuant to adjournment, Governor General Samuel B. Capen presiding.

The Committee on Nominations for General Officers reported as follows: For Governor General, Samuel B. Capen, of Massachusetts; for Secretary General,* Linus E. Fuller, of New York; for Treasurer General, James Mauran Rhodes, of Pennsylvania; for Historian General, Edward Henry Whorf, of Massachusetts; for Elder General, Rev. John Louis Ewell, D.D., of the District of Columbia; for Captain General, Myles Standish, M.D., of Massachusetts; for Surgeon General, Abiel Ward Nelson, M.D., of Connecticut; for Assistants General, Howland Davis, of New York, Edwin S. Crandon, of Massachusetts, Herbert Jenney, of Ohio, George Champlin Mason, of Pennsylvania, Rev. Allen Shaw Bush, of Colorado, Walter Morton Howland, of Illinois, William Waldo Hyde, of Connecticut.

On motion duly made and seconded, it was Voted: That the report of the Committee on Nominations be accepted and placed on file.

The State Societies reported the following as elected Deputy Governors General for their respective States: New York, Richard Henry Greene; Connecticut, Charles E. Gross; Massachusetts, Charles A. Hopkins; Pennsylvania, J. Granville Leach; Illinois, Frederick Morgan Steele; Ohio, William H. Doane; District of Columbia, Solomon E. Faunce; Rhode Island, George Corlis Nightingale; Michigan, Charles D. Standish; Maine, Archie Lee Talbot.

On motion duly made and seconded, it was Voted: That the Secretary General pro tem. be instructed to cast one ballot for the names as presented by the Committee. The Secretary General pro tem. thereupon cast one ballot and the same were declared duly elected.

On motion duly made and seconded, it was Voted: That the matter of the change in the rosette be taken from the table and considered. The matter was discussed at length, and upon motion duly made and seconded, it was Voted: That the matter be referred back to the Board of Assistants with authority whenever they reach a conclusion to act with full power.

* Mr. Fuller having resigned on account of absence, the General Board of Assistants, on November 15, 1906, elected Clarence Ettienne Leonard, of New York, to fill the vacancy.

On motion duly made and seconded, it was Voted: That a committee of five be appointed by the chair to arrange for a historical pilgrimage of this Society during the coming year. The chair appointed as such committee, George Ernest Bowman, of Massachusetts, chairman, Prof. Wilfred H. Munro, of Rhode Island, Walter C. Faxon, of Connecticut, William L. Marsh, of the District of Columbia, Arthur I. Nash, of Massachusetts.

The matter of a change in the text of the Constitution came up for discussion, and upon motion duly made and seconded, it was Voted: That a committee of three be appointed by the chair to re-write Article X so that the text may be clear that

1. Amendments to the Constitution shall require a two-thirds vote; that the vote shall be by States, and each State have one vote.

2. That in determining the vote of a State a majority of the delegates present and of the General Officers present belonging to such State organization shall be required.

3. That on other questions than amendments to the Constitution and the levying of assessments, each delegate present shall be entitled to cast his proportional part of the entire vote of the society which he represents, and each officer of the General Society shall be entitled to cast one vote.

The chair appointed as such committee, Myles Standish, M.D., of Massachusetts, chairman, Rev. John L. Ewell, D.D., of the District of Columbia, A. L. Talbot, of Maine.

On motion duly made and seconded, it was Voted: That the above resolution go to the Committee on Revision of Text and that the revision of text be sent out to the various State Societies, to be acted upon at the next General Congress.

Announcement was made of the banquet to be held at the Samoset House at 6.30 P.M.

The meeting was declared adjourned until September 7, 1906, 10.30 A.M.

Second Day

Church of the First Parish, Plymouth, Mass., Friday, September 7, 1906.

The Congress assembled at 10.30 A.M., and in the absence of the Governor General was called to order by Deputy Governor General Richard Henry Greene, of New York.

On motion duly made and seconded, it was Voted: That Mr. Greene preside at the session as senior Deputy Governor General.

The Secretary then read the names of the Committee on Pilgrimage as appointed in yesterday's session.

Capt. J. Henry Sears, President of the Cape Cod Pilgrim Memorial Association, then presented the aim of that association and desired that each State Society should be represented by a suitable tablet.

On motion duly made and seconded, it was Voted: That the following resolution be adopted.

Whereas, The Cape Cod Pilgrim Memorial Association is about to commence the erection of a great monument at Provincetown, in commemoration of the arrival of the Pilgrims on these shores and the Signing of the Compact in the cabin of the Mayflower, and has invited the State Societies of Mayflower Descendants to contribute each a memorial stone to said monument;

Be it Resolved: That the General Society expresses its grateful appreciation of the invitation, commends the object, and recommends that each State Society shall contribute a suitably inscribed stone and send the same to the Cape Cod Pilgrim Memorial Association for insertion in the monument.

On motion duly made and seconded, it was Voted: That the General Board of Assistants consider the desirability of the General Society being represented as well as State Societies on the above matter, with full power to act.

The Secretary then read the names of the Committee on Revision of Text in the Constitution as appointed in yesterday's session.

The Committee on Resolutions then submitted the following report:

Be it Resolved by the Society of Mayflower Descendants in General Congress assembled at Plymouth, September 7, 1906: That the thanks of the Congress be extended

1. To the General Officers of the Society for the zealous and efficient way in which they have performed their duties during the past three years, and especially to the Governor General for the courtesy and impartiality he has displayed as the presiding officer of this Congress.

2. To the officers of the First Church of Plymouth for the use of their church edifice, and for the kindly attention shown by them as individuals.

3. To the Committee on Entertainment for the "Bliss"-ful manner in which it has performed the task assigned it.

4. To Miss Caroline Bartlett Warren, Mrs. Frederick Newman Knapp and Mrs. William Seward Kyle of Plymouth for the hospitality which opened their homes to the members of the Society, and which added so much to the enjoyment of all those who have attended the Congress.

And lastly, To the speakers at the Banquet: Samuel B. Capen, Governor General; Rev. John Cuckson, Pastor of the First Church; Rev. William W. Dornan, Pastor of the Church of the Pilgrimage; Morton Dexter, of Massachusetts; Miss Mary Augusta Kent, of Pennsylvania; Rev. Dr. John Louis Ewell, of the District of Columbia; Col. Charles A. Hopkins, Governor of the Massachusetts Society; and the poet, Richard Henry Greene, of New York; whose words of wit and wisdom delighted and instructed all those who were present at that most important function.

The Entertainment Committee reported that there would be a sail around Plymouth Harbor, leaving Plymouth Rock wharf at 2.30 P.M.

Morton Dexter, Chairman of the Committee on Scrooby, then submitted the following report: Your committee recommends, That the officers of this Society be, and hereby are, authorized to set on foot inquiries whether it is practicable to gain control of the estate in Scrooby, England, where the Pilgrim Fathers organized their church, and under what conditions such control can be secured and maintained.

Herbert Jenney, of Ohio, made a short address on the subject of the Pilgrims, and was followed by Capt. Lorenzo Dow Baker, of Massachusetts, who congratulated the Society on their descent from the Mayflower Pilgrims. Judge Shepard, of the District of Columbia, made an interesting address. Mr. Case, of Illinois, suggested that a flag of the Society be provided.

Elder General Ewell offered the following resolution, which was moved, seconded and voted:

The General Society of Mayflower Descendants, assembled in its Fourth Triennial Congress, extends to those who expect to celebrate the Landing at Jamestown before we shall meet again its fraternal and most hearty congratulations and good wishes. Our country will never forget that the Jamestown Colony led the way for all the English settlers of our country;

the religious purpose that was made so clear and prominent in their commission from the Mother country; the hardships, perils and deadly tragedies which shadowed their early years, and the heroism and faith of men like Capt. John Smith, and Rev. Robert Hunt, which show out all the more brightly by contrast with their dark surroundings.

Jamestown and Plymouth, Virginia and Massachusetts, will be forever associated as the brightest names in the beginnings of our country's history. God keep and bless the two Commonwealths and our whole republic evermore.

Resolved: That the Secretary General be instructed to send a copy of these resolutions to the appropriate officer of the Jamestown Celebration.

Archie Lee Talbot, of Maine, closed the addresses of the morning.

George Ernest Bowman, Secretary of the Massachusetts Society, extended the courtesies of the rooms of the Society, at 53 Mt. Vernon St., Boston, to the members of the General Society; and Deputy Governor General Greene also extended the courtesies of the New York Society at 44 East 23d St., New York.

On motion duly made and seconded, it was Voted: That the thanks of this Congress be extended to all who have contributed to our happiness on this occasion.

The minutes of the session of the Fourth General Congress were read by the Secretary General pro tem., and with minor corrections were approved. Secretary General pro tem. Leonard was authorized to make corrections and transpositions.

Deputy Governor General Greene closed with appropriate remarks.

Elder General Rev. John Louis Ewell, D.D., pronounced the benediction, and the Congress was declared adjourned.

Clarence E. Leonard,
Secretary General pro tem.

The Banquet

The Banquet of the members of the General Society of Mayflower Descendants and their friends, held at the Samoset House, Plymouth, on the evening of September 6, 1906, at the conclusion of the first day's session of the Fourth Triennial Congress, was a most satisfactory and entertaining affair.

Following a feast of edibles, lasting from seven to nine o'clock, came an enjoyable succession of addresses.

Elder General Rev. John Louis Ewell, D.D., invoked the divine blessing and Governor General Samuel B. Capen made an interesting address, followed by Rev. John Cuckson, Pastor of the Church of the First Parish, and by Rev. W. W. Dornan, Pastor of the Church of the Pilgrimage, in both serious and entertaining remarks.

Morton Dexter, of Boston, in the course of an address eulogizing the high standard of character and loftiness of purpose of the Pilgrims, said: "I have given a great deal of time and attention to the study of Pilgrim history, especially that part of it relating to the origin and development of the Pilgrim movement and of their life in England and Holland, and until they came here, and the more I have studied their history, the more I have learned to regard them with the profoundest reverence. I learned to look upon them with reverence and an honor which I never had expected to feel for any men or women of the past.

"I tell you, in the loftiness of their standards, in their shrewd sagacity, in their inflexible tenacity of purpose, in their self-sacrifice, in their breadth and tolerance, their charity of spirit, a most unusual thing in their time, in the sweetness and nobility of their personal characters, and in the absolute unconsciousness that they were heroes and heroines, they impressed themselves on me as no other characters in all history.

"It would be impossible, in my judgment, to do them too much reverence."

Miss Mary Augusta Kent, of Pennsylvania, spoke in an entertaining and humorous manner and was followed by Elder General Ewell and by Deputy Governor General Charles A. Hopkins, of Massachusetts. Deputy Governor General Richard Henry Greene then read an original poem.

During the evening the "Mayflower Song," words by Richard Henry Greene, of New York, and music by W. H. Doane, of Ohio, was sung with effect, and the gathering of a hundred and twenty "Pilgrims" to do honor to the memory of their forefathers closed with the singing of "America."

REV. JONATHAN SCOTT'S RECORD OF MARRIAGES

Communicated by HENRY EDWARDS SCOTT

DURING the years of his ministry in Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, and in Poland (later Minot), Maine, extending over almost half a century, Rev. Jonathan Scott * kept a careful record of the marriages which he solemnized, beginning in 1772 and ending in 1819. One hundred and seventy marriages were solemnized by him in Nova Scotia, and one hundred and thirteen in Maine. Mr. Scott recorded also the marriage of his daughter Lucretia to Timothy Reding, which was solemnized by Rev. John Strickland of Turner, Maine, after Mr. Scott had removed from Nova Scotia to Maine but before he had been installed as pastor of the church in Poland. The manuscript, therefore, contains a record of two hundred and eighty-four marriages. There are also two or three entries referring to Mr. Scott's installation over and subsequent relations to the church in Poland (Minot). In the case of Nova Scotia marriages, when the banns had been published by some other person than Mr. Scott, the certificates also are recorded.

This record, which is now in the possession of a great-granddaughter of Mr. Scott, is preserved in a little book $5\,{}^{7}/_{8}$ inches in height and $3\,{}^{3}/_{4}$ inches in width. It is bound in dark green covers, one of which is extended as a flap, when the book is closed, and fastened by a brass clasp to the centre of the other cover. There is a pocket on the inside of each cover, and the appearance of the book (save for the color of the binding and the brass clasp) is not unlike that of one of the ordinary pocket diaries of today. On the outside of one cover, running lengthwise from top to bottom, are faint traces of writing in black ink, and the words, "A Record of Marriages," may be read with difficulty.

The book contains eighty-eight leaves, or one hundred and seventy-six pages, of white paper, all of which were originally unruled; but the title-page and pages 3–89 have been ruled faintly, probably by Mr. Scott's hand. The first leaf was left blank, and the first page of the second leaf was used for the title-page. The first page of the third leaf is numbered 3, and from there on to the end of the book the pages are numbered with ink, there being in all one hundred and seventy-four numbered pages. Pages 3–12, inclusive, were set apart for "The Contents," a list of the names of the men who were married, in the order in which the marriages were solemnized, with references to the pages where the marriages are recorded. The record proper begins on page 13, and ends near the middle of page 127, page 60 being left blank. Pages 128–164 and 170–174, inclusive, are also blank, pages 165–169 being devoted to "The Remainder of the Contents," for which the pages originally set apart did not suffice. The handwriting in the first part of the book is large, and very easy to read, and mistakes in spelling are rare. As a rule only two marriages are recorded on a page; beyond page 89, however, three or four marriages are recorded on a page, the handwriting is smaller and betrays a feebler hand, and mistakes in spelling, due, apparently, to carelessness or weariness, are more frequent.

* For Rev. Jonathan Scott and his family, see ante, VIII : 80

The title-page and the record are printed in full. The Contents have not been printed; but where the name as given in the Contents differs in any way from the name in the record, attention has been called to this difference in a foot-note.

March the 14^th^ 1705/6 this is the day of my birth which hath Somthing remarkable in it in that it happeneth to be the Same day of the week as well as of the month as it was when I was born into the world and as it was in ye year in the which I was married to my beloved wife whom I account to be the greatest outward blessing [p. 26] I was ever made a partaker of her I received on Such a birth day as this now is even on a thusday the fourthteenth of march . Well . now by the good providence of god I am arived to Such another day and I am now Just entering the fourty Sixth year of my pilgramage lord give me grace to begin it with god O how many times three years have I Stood in thy vineyard a fruitless tree lord cut me not down but Spare me yet one year longer if it may be for thy glory and my good O lord it is it is the desire of my Soul this day to renew my covenant with the O my god : Lord give me grace to walk with the as thy covenant Servant renouncing all other Lords for thou O lord art my god and though other have had too much the dominion over me yet by thy name only will I make mention of the O lord let the Blood of thy dear Son clense me from all my forepass Sins & miserable Infirmityes and o let the grace of my blessed and Dear redeemer Enable me to Serve the better that as I am now entring upon a new year So I may renew my diligence in my christian calling O grant that I may bring forth Some fruit this year when o by thou O my heavenly Father mayest be glorified : amen

on the Eighth day of march 1705/6 I had a Son Born which we Named Josiah the lord ads to our numbers o lord add to our graces [p. 27] and O lord give me wisdom that I may bring up these thou givest me in thy fear let this child o lord be a true Josiah one that that may Seek god when he is very young Amen amen

on the Sixteenth day of august 1707 * My aged father Thomas Paine departed this life : I am now left fatherless and motherless as to my natural parents but my God is a father of the fatherless upon whose providence I cast my Self o thou god of my father do not thou cast me off though my father and my mother have forsaken me my hope is in the

The eighteenth day of November 1707 I had a Son Born which we named Nathanael : The Lord gratiously grant that he may be an ISraellite indeed in whom there may be no guile and oh that thou my blessed lord wouldest call him betimes with an Effectual call as thou didest Nathanel when under the fig tree and reveal thy Self savingly unto him

March y^e^ 14^th^ 1707/8 This is the day of the month and year in which I was Born and I am this day entring the fourty eighth [p. 28] year of my Earthly pilgramage but oh when I look back and consider the Mercyes of god which have followed me and my unprofitableness and unfruitfullness under all I have Just cause to cry out O wreched man that I am oh barran Sinner that I have been a god provokeing Sinner that I have been O My god be Mercyfull to me the Vilest of Sinners pardon the manyfold Sins that I have been guilty of both original and actual both of Omission and commission for which a world cannot make Satisfaction for the guilty O lord all my hope is in thy meer mercy and Super abundant grace in Jesus Christ

but ye precious blood of Jesus Christ with out which I am undone undone undone
Lord grant me mercy else I am undone
My hopes alone in Jesus Christ thy Son whose presious blood upon the crose was Spilt to Sanctify and Save my Soul from guilt

*This should have been 1706, as Thomas Paine made his will 12 May, 1705, his inventory was taken 30 August, 1706, and the will was proved 2 October, 1706. [Barnstable Co. Probate Records, III: 360.]

[p. 29] Save me o lord from my iniquity and let me now begin this year with thee and let me walk with thee throughout this year if So long thou Shalt me continue here on the last day of october 1709 I had a daughter born Named Rebekah : Thus many children god bestows on me
O Righteous father let them blessed be let them Recive regenarating grace that So their latter end may be in peace
O make them thine whilst in this world they live and at the last to glory them receive that being blessings in their generation
they may that last behold thy great Salvation
March y^e^ 14^th^ 1709/10
How doth time pass it flies alas for it hath eagles wings
it flies away and will not Stay for temporary things
The Sun doth rise mounts up the Skies
[p. 30] but soon doth Set again mans born in tears grows up in fears his pleasures are but vain
Alas for me how plain I See my time away doth run
forty nine year Ive passed here
The fiftieth now begun
O glorious lord wilt thou afford me grace this year to Spend unto thy praise ye all my days
untill my life Shall end
O Father Dear in mercy Spare me and mine one year more thy grace is free O grant me thou Lord hast grace in Store grant grace to mine for they are thine lord thou didst give them me and them O lord with free accord
Ive given back to thee . Amen amen

JAMES SCAMMON EMERY'S FAMILY BIBLE RECORD

Communicated by MISS FLORENCE ELSIE BLAKE

THERE is in the possession of the writer the family Bible of her grandfather, James Scammon Emery, showing, in his handwriting, records of his marriage and the births of the members of his own and his father's families, and of the births of his grandparents, James Emery and Mary Scammon, and their children; also records of the deaths of two of his children.

All descendants of James and Mary (Scammon) Emery can claim Mayflower descent, since Mary Scammon was a daughter of Samuel and Mehitable (Hinckley) Scammon and was descended from Elder William Brewster through her mother, who was a daughter of Samuel and Mary (Freeman) Hinckley. The baptism of Mehitable Hinckley and the admission of her parents to the church at Truro will be found in the "Truro, Mass., Church Records," printed in this number. Mary (Freeman) Hinckley was a daughter of Lieutenant Edmund Freeman and a granddaughter of Major John Freeman and Mercy Prence, who was a daughter of Governor Thomas Prence and Patience[2] Brewster (Elder William[1]).

Buxton, Wayne, Carmel and Hampden, the places mentioned in the entries, are all in the State of Maine.

TRURO, MASS., CHURCH RECORDS

Transcribed from the Original Records,

By George Ernest Bowman

The oldest record book of the Congregational Church at Truro, Mass., covers the period from 1709 to 1833 and contains, in addition to the church proceedings, the records of more than 800 admissions to membership, of more than 900 persons who owned the covenant, and of over 4,000 baptisms. The list of baptisms contains the names of many children whose births are not to be found on the town records; the list of covenant owners (many of whom later were admitted to full communion) in connection with the list of members, is also of great assistance in tracing the Truro families.

* The deaths of James S. and Eliza A. Emery were recorded by their daughter.

In 1886 the baptisms prior to 1800 were printed in pamphlet form, under the title "Truro Baptisms 1711–1800," but a careful comparison of this pamphlet with the original record has disclosed many errors in the names and dates as printed, and the errors in the names have resulted, in a number of instances, in changing the sex of the persons mentioned. The comparison also disclosed the omission from the pamphlet of several baptismal records, which even now can be read with little difficulty. It has seemed best, therefore, to include the baptisms in the present transcript, which was made from the original record book, in order that an accurate and complete copy of these important records may be preserved and made accessible to all.

The "Church Proceedings" begin on page 1 of the record book, the "Covenant Owners" on page 28, the "Baptisms" on page 50, and the "Members Admitted" on page 300. In this article all records to the end of the year 1719 are given, under their respective headings,* and, as far as possible, this method will be followed in future articles, each one including the proceedings, covenant owners, baptisms and admissions to a specified date.

JOHN[2] RICHMOND (JOHN[1]) HAD TWO WIVES

Communicated by EDWARD HENRY WHORF

THE following abstracts from the Bristol County, Mass., Probate and Land Records, in connection with the will of John[2] Rogers (Thomas[1]), printed in the fifth volume of this magazine, furnish conclusive proof that John[2] Richmond (John[1]) had two wives; but nothing has yet been learned regarding the first wife except that she was the mother of the first four children. The second wife, Abigail[3] Rogers (John[2], Thomas[1]), was the mother of the other seven children.

From the Plymouth Colony Records and the Taunton Proprietors' Records we learn that John[2] Richmond had eleven children, born as follows: Mary, 2 June, 1654; John, 6 June, 1656 (he died young); Thomas, 2 February, 1658; Susanna, 4 November, 1661; Joseph, 8 December, 1663; Edward, 8 February, 1665; Samuel, 23 September, 1668; Sarah, 26 February, 1670; John (second of the name), 5 December, 1673; Ebenezer, 12 May, 1676; Abigail, 26 February, 1678.

In the will of John[2] Rogers, made in 1691, he gives "to my daughter Abigail Richmond" money due from "my two Grandsons Joseph Richmond and Edward Richmond." As Abigail (Rogers) Richmond was the mother of Joseph and Edward and was living in 1691, she must have been also the mother of the five children born after Edward.

The abstracts from the Bristol County Records here printed relate to the settlement of the estate of John[2] Richmond's son

* The words in italics are later additions to the record.

Thomas. He died in 1705, evidently without issue, and his estate was divided between his sisters, Mary Godfrey and Susanna Reed, the only children "of the whole blood," that is, having the same father and the same mother, who were living at the time of his death.

"An Inventory of the Estate of Thomas Richmond of Taunton taken the 19th of December 1705 who dyed the 14th of the sd month" [Bristol Co. Prob. Rcds. II : 146.]

"An account of John Richmond of Taunton . . . . . one of the Administrators" mentions portions of the estate "in my son Ebenezers Richmond hand," "in my son Joseph Richmonds hand," "in my son Samuel. Richmonds hand," "in my son Edwards hand," "in my Son in law Richard Godffree," "in my son in law James walkers hand," also the payment "to my son John Richmond a debt due from the Estate." The account was approved by the judge of probate on 6 March, 1706/7, "And it is farther ordered by the said Judge that all the Remaining part of the personall Estate of the said Deceased Thomas Richmond by & hereby is settled on the said John Richmond ffather to the said Deceased and that the Real Estate the said Thomas Richmond Dyed lawfully seized of be equally Divided between Mary Godfree the wife of Richard Godfree of Taunton & Susanah Reed the wife of James Reed of Middlebury in the County of Plimouth being all of the whole blood that survived upon the Decease of the Intestate" John Richmond, the administrator, appealed to the Governor and Council from this "order of the Distribution of the lands to Mary and Susanah sisters of the whole blood to the said Deceased Thomas Richmond" [Bristol Co. Prob. Files, original document.]

On 14 December, 1722, "Richard Godfree & Mary Godfree his wife of taunton" sold to "our beloved son John Godfree of taunton" "all our Right title & interest in & unto the Estate of our Brother Thomas Richmond Late of taunton Now Called of Dighton Decd : it Being our half part or moety there of all & singular both Lands meadows Goods Chattels moneys wars movables or what soever that he the sd thomas Richmond Died Lawfully Seasd of" [Bristol Co. Deeds, 17 : 508.]

PILGRIM NOTES AND QUERIES

Notes

Lieut. John Tomson's Gravestone. Through the courtesy of Mr. Joseph E. Beals we have received a photograph of the gravestone of

Lieut. John Tomson, who married Mary[2] Cooke (Francis[1]). The stone is in the Nemasket Hill Cemetery at Middleborough, Mass., and is inscribed as follows: "Memento Mori In Memory of Lieut John Tomson, who Died June ye 16th 1696 In the 80th Year of his Age. Death is a debt to nature due, Which I have paid and so must you."

MARRIAGE RECORDS AT LEYDEN AND AMSTERDAM. In our April number we shall present illustrations of the two entries at Amsterdam and the entry at Leyden referring to the first marriage of Governor Bradford. We have also had photographed the marriage records, at Leyden, of Robert Cushman, Edward Southworth, Roger Chandler, John Jenney and George Morton. These will be reproduced in future issues.

JOSHUA FREEMAN GROZIER'S FAMILY RECORD. Mr. William B. Rand has kindly allowed us to copy for these Notes the family record made by his great grandfather, Joshua Freeman Grozier, who was born at Truro on 2 April, 1769, the son of John Grozier by his wife Mercy[5] Hopkins (Caleb[4–3], Gyles[2], Stephen[1]).

THE MAYFLOWER DESCENDANT

Vol. IX APRIL, 1907 No. 2

GOVERNOR BRADFORD'S MARRIAGE SETTLEMENT ON HIS SON WILLIAM

Transcribed from the Original Records,

By George Ernest Bowman

William[2] Bradford (Gov. William[1]), who is usually called "Major" William Bradford, married, first, Alice Richards of Weymouth, Mass., the daughter of Thomas and Welthian Richards, but the date of the marriage is not known. The date of Gov. Bradford's marriage settlement on his son William, however, indicates that the ceremony was performed not far from 23 April, 1650; and it is certain that the marriage took place before 28 January, 1650/1, since William[2] Bradford joined in a petition of the heirs of Thomas Richards on that date. [See "The Wills of Thomas and Welthian Richards" in this issue.]

This marriage settlement, although made on 23 April, 1650, was not recorded until 29 October, 1671, more than fourteen years after Governor Bradford's death, over a year and a half after his widow's death, and about six weeks before the death of Alice (Richards) Bradford. It is recorded in the Plymouth Colony Records of Deeds, Volume III, page 204.

ye 25th Christmas Day In ye Morning I Came off and Dismisd My Guard at Gun Firing in ye Morning — It was a Worm Foggy Day Raind Som — I Went to Capt. Durkes Blockhous & Spent Som time there Alone — I Also went to Capt: Durkes & Bought Som Suger and Chocalet there — This Day ye Ragulars Had a Genll Frolick — In ye Evening I and My Mess Mates Set By ye Fire & Had Considrable Discorce about Cortship & Som other things — About 8 oClock I Went to ye Doors Hereing an Unusual Nois in the Fort & Jaust as I Got out ye Fire was Breaking out of ye Barrick at ye Left Hand as we Go in at ye Draw Bridge — ye Fire Increasd Vary Fast & in Half an Hour that Barrick was all in Flaims. & ye Fire Cetching on ye North End of ye East Barrk Which we Knew if that Got on Fire it Wold Get to the Large Maggazien in Spite of all Human art — But By the Help of water & Snow we Prevented its Burning Much on ye East Barrick altho it Lit on it Several Times & we were Obligd to Nock out ye Gable End — After ye Barrick was Consumd ye Fire Continud Vary Strong in ye Stor Seller Back of it — the Gates was trrown open & ye Draw Bridg Down till ye Fire was in Som Measure Quenchd — Many Men Were Employd in Wheeling Snow & throwing of it into ye Stor Seller —

In ye Haith of ye Fire Several of ye Sentrys were Obligd to Quit their Posts By ye Extream Heet of ye Flames — ye Sparitous Liquers in this Stor Blaisd Vary Brisk — In ye Whol of ye Fire there Not a Man Losd — But there was a Dog perrishd in the Seller — About 12 oClock ye Whol Fire was Cheefly Put out & ye Men Releasd to their Quarters &c —

The Two Lieuts of ye Grannodears I Understand Lost all their Effects Except Just their Apperrel on their Backs and Great Sums of Money were Lost By Several other offrs — A Large Quantity of Kings Stors were Lost as well as a Vast Deal of Damage to ye Fort — But we Dont think Much of ye Loss Since ye Garri- is Saved . which we Vary Much Feared —

This Day I was Thinking what Remark I Might Make on ye Day to Remember the Chrismas By . But Since this Has Hapned I Think it a Sufficient Instance for a Memmorandum &c — ye 26th In ye Morning I went into ye Fort & Se ye Ruens of ye Barrick that was Burnt — then I went to ye Capts where I Hered yt He Had a Son Lately Born &c : — this Day our offrs Bought Mr Northams Goods &c : —

THE WILLS OF THOMAS AND WELTHIAN RICHARDS

Abstracted from the Original Documents,

By George Ernest Bowman

The wills of Thomas Richards of Weymouth, Mass., and his widow, Welthian Richards of Boston, will interest many descendants of Plymouth Colony families, since their daughter Mary Richards was the first wife of Thomas[2] Hinckley † (Samuel[1]), afterwards governor of Plymouth Colony, and bore him eight children, all but one of whom married. The daughter Alice Richards became the wife of William[2] Bradford ‡ (Gov. William[1]) and bore him ten children, all of whom married.

The will of Thomas Richards was made at Hull, Mass., at the house of Thomas Loring, on 17 December, 1650, and the inventory of his goods at Weymouth was taken 18 January, 1650/1; he must, therefore, have died between these two dates. None of the papers relating to his estate were recorded, and the following abstracts, with the literal copy of the petition of the heirs, were made from the original documents, now in the Suffolk County Probate Files in Boston.

The will of the widow Welthian Richards was made at Boston on 3 July, 1679, and proved 4 November, 1679, and she must have died between these dates. Her will, also, is in the Suffolk County Probate Files and the abstract here presented was made from the original document.

* These nine marriages are separated from the preceding records by a line across the page, and evidently were all by Rev. Nathaniel Eells.

† Mayflower Descendant, VI : 98. ‡ Ibid., IX : 65.

[The Will of Thomas Richards]

The will of Thomas Richards of Weymouth was made at the house of Thomas Loring, in Hull, Mass., 17 December, 1650, and was proved 28 January, 1650/1. Bequests were made to his wife; to son John, who is away from home; to son James; to son Samuel; to sons Joseph and Benjamin, both under twenty-one years of age; "daughters mary and An and Alce and Hannah; shall have halfe so much as my sonnes; all alike" but Mary is to have £10 more than the others; "to Brother Thos Loringe." Son John, Thomas Loring and Nicholas Baker are to see that the will is carried out.

On 18 and 25 January, 1650/1, the goods at Weymouth, Mass., and Boston were inventoried.

On 28 January, 1650/1, the inventories were sworn to by Mrs. Richards. An account rendered by her mentions debts due to "mr ffermace of Plimouth," to Thomas Hinckley, to Ephraim Hunt and to Captain Standish of Duxbury.

On the same day the following petition of the heirs was presented to the court.

"To the Honoured Court at Boston : 28 : (11) 1650

Wheras our deare father Mr Thomas Richards late of Waymouth : dyed and left a will but appoynted no executors of the same : We whose names are underwritten doe humbly desire this Honor Court that our deare Mother mrs Welthian Richards : late wife of our deare father deceased : may have power granted by this Court to improve the estate that our father left untill our Brother John Richards shall returne hether he being now in England : or in case of his not returninge untill the Court shall thinke good to dispose otherwise And that our dear Mother may returne an Inventory into this Court of the whole estate of our said father deceased and also be bound to give an account of the said estate upon all demands : That so the estate may be ordred for our good & the payment of our fathers debt : Thus not doubting of your fatherly care for the fatherlesse we humbly take leave

James Richards
Joseph Richards :
Beniamin Richards
mr Thomas Hinckley desires ye same by his letter mr wilm Bradford also desires ye same by his letter
Epharim Hunt
hannah Richards

It is also the desire of us whose names are underwritten : whome mr Richard hath chosen Overseers of his last will

Thomas Loringe Nico Baker"

On 3 December, 1651, John Richards acknowledged himself satisfied with his mother's management of the estate.

[The Will of Welthian Richards]

The will of Wealthian Richards, widow, of Boston, was made on 3 July, 1679, and proved 4 November, 1679. It was signed by a mark. Bequests were made to eldest son, John Richards; to son James Richards; to Thomas Bradford, £5; to Alice Bradford, £60: to Hannah Bradford, £40; to Mercy Bradford, £10; to William Bradford, Jr., £20; to John Bradford, £10; to Samuel Bradford, £5; to Melatiah Bradford, £5; to Mary Bradford, £5; to Sarah Bradford, £5; "These ten above last named being children of William Bradford of Plimoth Colony & my daughter Al[ce] deceased"; to Samuel Hinckley, £20; to Thomas Hinckley, Jr., £30; to Sarah Bacon, £10; to Hannah Glover, £5; to Melatiah Crocker, £5; to Bathshua Hinckley, £5; to Mehitable Hinckley, £5; to Mary Wiborne, £5; "These Eight last mentioned being c[hildren] of Thomas Hinckly of Plimoth Colony & my daughter Mary deceased"; to Ephraim Hunt and John Hunt, "Sons to Ephraim Hunt Sen^r^ of Weymoth, & my late daughter Anne," £5 apiece; To "the daughter of Mary Wiborne aboves^d^ five pounds, & to her Son ten pounds"; to the son of Hannah Glover, £5; to John Bradford's two children, £5 each; to Samuel Hinckley's child, £5; to Sarah Bacon's two children, £5 each; to "my son James's six children," 20 shillings each, "to buy them a ring apeece"; to Thomas Hunt's two children, £5 each; "More to Alce, & Hannah Bradford five pounds Each to [worn] them in Mouring att my funerall"; to the poor of Boston, £10; to the First Church in Boston, £5; to Harvard College, £5; to Sarah Leverett, widow of the late Governor, £5; to each of the overseers of the will, £5; "To Mercy Bradford, the Worst of [the] feather beds, one bolster, one coverlid, one p^r^ blanketts, one p^r^ sheets, one pillow & pillowbeer. The rest to Alce [worn] Bradford to be Equally devided"; her wearing apparell to be equally divided between Alice and [worn] Bradford and Bathshua Hinckley; "if Alce Bradford aboves^d^ doe Marry w^th^out my Consent while I am living, or w^th^out the Consent of my Excuto^r^" she is to lose all bequests, which are then to be divided among the other legatees; son John Richards to be sole executor.

The witnesses were Henry Phillips and John Waite.

GRAVESTONE RECORDS FROM THE CEMETERY AT MARSHFIELD HILLS, MASS.

Communicated by JOHN W. WILLARD

IN October and November, 1906, the writer made copies of all inscriptions dated prior to 1851, with a few of later date, on the gravestones in the Cemetery at Marshfield Hills, Mass. With the assistance of Messrs. Stanley W. Smith and Edward H. Whorf these copies were verified in March, 1907, and have been presented to the Massachusetts Society of Mayflower Descendants. All the genealogical facts to be found in these copies are given in the following abstracts.

March ye 14th 1710/11 I am now arived to the age of one and fifty year this day : and am now entering upon the two [p. 31] and fiftyeth year of my Earthly pilgramage O my Souls how long hast thou Stood in gods vinyard how many times three years has the lord of the vinyard born with and forborn a fruitless tree O my lord thou hast exersised long and unweried patience towards me a barran Sinner who have deserved a thousand times to have been cut down and cast into the fire but O lord thy grace is free and under thy Injoyment of all thy favours O lord I will always cry grace grace free rich grace is the fountain from whence they all flow am I yet alive and out of hell tis grace free grace that I am So have I yet my dear frinds my wife my Children Spared and continued under comfortable circomstance it is free grace and rich undeserved mercy glory glory to free grace — have I and mine been preserved heither unto from gross Scandals it is free grace for it is not in man that walketh to direct his own Steps : O my god I will acknowlege thee in all . for I have deserved by my Sins to have been forsaken of god . and Striped naked of all my comforts and that all my blessings Should have been cursed of god . but O my gratious god and mercyfull father I pray that for the Sake of my glorious lord Jesus Christ pardon and freely forgive [p. 32] all the Sins which Ither my Self or mine have been guilty in the year past ye in our whole lives O lord I come my Self and bring all that thou hast given me to that fountain which clenses from all Sin even the fountain of the blood Jesus Christ which was Shed for the Sins of many and O my blessed Saviour keep me and those thou hast given me that we may be all keept (whilst in the world from the evil of the world) and o let us be Spared one year longer let us be Spared and preserved from Sin that it may not greive us and offend god and provoke thee to deal with us as with the generation of thy wrath amen amen

This day being the 14th of march 1711/12 I have taken Some Steps towards the promoting of that which may have great influence into the comfort or discomfort of my Son John being a matter of as great concern to his outward State in the world as any he is like to be concerned in the gratious lord of mercy bless that concern and let it be caried on to his glory amen

My Daughter Mery * was born on a thursday evening the third day of April Anno Domini 1712
[p. 33] and that She may a mercy be to me
O bless lord I Lift my heart to thee .
that thou would.st please to give to her that grace which may prepare her for a heavenly place on the first day of october : 1712 : my brother Joseph Paine departed this life and on the thirteenth day of the Same month my Brother Samuel Paine departed and fell a Sleep both of them leaving comfortable hopes that they . Slept in christ

March y^e^ 14^th^ 1712/13 I am this day entring on the fifty third year of my life in this world my Soul call now to mind the years of the right hand of the most high call to mind especily this day the providences of god that have passed over thee : the year past from Shittim unto gilgall from one dispensation of providence unto another that thou mayest remember the loving kindness of the lord . indeed I have cause with Sorrow of heart to bewail and lament the awfull Stroakes of the rod of god upon me in taking away two of my natural brethen who were dear unto me . ye and that after my most earnest prayers and Supplications to heaven for the Sparing of their lives yet nevertheless there was mercy mingled with this affliction & honey with this gall [p. 34] in that they both departed under comfortable circomstances as to their Eternal Estate glory be to god : but O my Soul let not this cup of Sorrow So over flow as to quench the Sence of gods mercyes which have been to me ward very great far beyond my deserts . god has preserved me from that sore Sickness which caried away my two brothers ye and though god was pleased to Send it unto my family and to visit my Son Beniamin thereby in so terible a manner as that we all even dispared of his life yet god was gratious to him and to me in him in hearing my prayers in my my destresing anguishes and restoring him to health again and in preserving my whole family that no more of them have been visited thereby when it is gone through other families . ye and further (which I desire to take notice of and to mention to gods glory) that not one of my friends who have charitably assisted with their help in the time of our distress have recived any damage thereby these things I here Set down that the genrations to come may take [p. 35] notice of gods goodness to me and be incurraged to put their trust in god who hath been my hope and refuge and a very present help (to me) in time of troble . Now may the god and father of our lord Jesus christ

the god of all grace and mercy please for christ Sake (whose blood was Sheed for the remission of the Sins of many) to pardon and freely forgive the many Sins that either my Self or any of mine have been guilty of in the year past and O that these blessings of goodness which we respectively have been made partakers of may prevent us from Sining against So good a god . and O that the blessings of divine goodness and mercy might follow me and mine this year also and that not according to the works which we have done or Shall do but O that according to thy mercy and the riches of thy free grace thou O lord wilt please to deal with us and Spare us one year longer amen amen

on the fifteenth day of December 1713 my Son Benjamin departed this Life who on the eighth day of the Same month being at Sea on a whaleing desine the boat in which he was : was Staved to peices by a whale and he thrown into the water and wounded in his Body [p. 36] which with the cold of the water and wether Set him into a grevious fevour which co-opperating with his bodily hurt was the means of his death he was a lovly and desirable child both in life and death the last words almost which he uttered were : Lord Jesus recive my Soul

O cruel Death what can nothing Satisfy but the Life of So pleasent and desirable a comfort why couldst thou not have Seized on Some older infirm person whose life is Even a burden to them Selves and they them Selves a burden & a trouble to all about them what can nothing but the fairest and most flourishing flower Satisfie Such a devouring worm what cant the earnest desire of inocent nature for a longer Continuance nor the flowing tears of nearest and dearest relations avail nothing O no death is the king of terrours and comes with a commission from the lord of Life and death and will not nay cannot be bribed he must Strike those and only those that his commission reaches . and is it So indeed then O let me never be angry at death for he is my Lord and masters Servant and goes and comes at his biding but let me be forever displeased with Sin which is the Sting of death and makes it terible and let me and every gratious Soul bless god the father of mercyes who gives us the victory [p. 37] throught Jesus christ our Lord . and O let me and mine Especially be awakned by Such Solemn Stroakes to be diligent to prepare against our own time and chaing comes that we may then be found in christ who has conquered death and taken away the Sting thereof Amen amen.

SAMSON NOTES

By the EDITOR

UNDER the general title of "Samson Notes" we shall print, from time to time, abstracts from the numerous notes made by the Editor, from original records and documents, relating to descendants of Henry Samson. The notes printed will be selected with especial reference to their value in establishing lines of descent from Henry Samson.

In the following notes the Michael Samson who married Hannah Pool was the son of Caleb[3] Samson (Caleb[2], Henry[1]), by his wife Mehitable Ford.

[SAMSON — FORD]

On 5 May, 1758, Abner Ford, coaster, Bethiah Ford, weaver, of Marshfield, and Michael Samson, cordwainer, of Abington, for £43, 10s., 5d., sold to Paul Samson, housewright, of Duxbury, all their rights "in all the real estate of our father Caleb Samson deceased and our brother Martin Samson who died a minor, viz. all the rights in the Farm and Buildings &c. on which our Father dwelt and in a certain piece of wood land lying near four mile Hill both in the Township of Duxborough and in a piece of salt meadow in Marshfield lying near the place called wharf creek or Hither Point."

THE MAYFLOWER MARRIAGE RECORDS AT LEYDEN AND AMSTERDAM

(Concluded from Vol. VIII, p. 130)

WILLIAM BRADFORD'S FIRST MARRIAGE

THE frontispiece of this number reproduces the marriage record, from the Pui Book at Amsterdam, of William Bradford and Dorothy May; and the accompanying illustrations show the two records of the intentions of marriage, from the Doop, Trouw and Begrafenis Regs., 667, 52, at Amsterdam, and Echt Book B, folio 25, at Leyden.

The "intention" at Amsterdam is not dated, but follows one dated 9 November, 1613. The intentions were published at Leyden on 16, 23 and 30 November, 1613, and the marriage took place at Amsterdam 10 December, 1613.

Then appeared also as before William Bradford, from Austerfield, fustian weaver, 23 years old, living at Leyden, where the banns have been published, declaring that he has no parents, on the one part, and Dorothy May, 16 years old, from Wisbeach in England, at present living on the New Dyke, assisted by Henry May, on the other part, and declared that they were betrothed to one another with true covenants, requesting their three Sunday proclamations in order after the same to solemnize the aforesaid covenant and in all respects to execute it, so far as there shall be no lawful hindrances otherwise. And to this end they declared it as truth that they were free persons and not akin to each other by blood — That nothing existed whereby a Christian marriage might be hindered; and their banns are admitted.

WHITE NOTES

By the Editor

Under the general title of "White Notes" we shall print, from time to time, abstracts from the numerous notes made by the Editor, from original records and documents, relating to descendants of William[1] White of the Mayflower. The notes printed will be selected with especial reference to their value in establishing lines of descent from William[1] White.

The following notes, all from Barnstable County Probate Records, refer to Jonathan[3] White (Peregrine[2], William[1]) and some of his descendants. His birth and marriage will be found in the second volume of this magazine. The deaths of some of the persons mentioned in these notes will be found in "Gravestone Records in the Ancient Cemetery and the Woodside Cemetery, Yarmouth, Mass.," published by this Society.*

[Will of Jonathan[3] White]

The will of Jonathan[3] White, yeoman, of Yarmouth, Mass., was made 14 July, 1736, and proved 22 February, 1737. No inventory is recorded. The will mentions eldest son, Jonathan White; third son, Joseph White, who is to be sole executor; son Ebenezer White; daughter Elizabeth White, single woman; daughter Esther Drake; daughter Sarah White, daughter Mary Russell; grandson Jonathan Dell, who is under age.

The witnesses were John Jones, John Eldredge and Thomas Smith. [Barnstable Co. Prob. Records, V : 304.]

* See advertising pages in this issue.

On 14 November, 1741, John Arnold, son of Esther Drake, deceased, and grandson of Jonathan White of Yarmouth, deceased, in his capacity as administrator of his mother's estate and guardian of Francis Drake, heir of said Esther Drake, receipts to Joseph White, executor of Jonathan's will, for Esther's share in her father's estate. [Barnstable Co. Prob. Records, VI : 59.]

On 24 February, 1737, Ebenezer White. sold to Joseph White all his rights in the personal estate of his father, Jonathan White. The sale was acknowledged by Ebenezer, 9 February, 1739/40. [Barnstable Co. Prob. Records, VI : 60.]

[Will of John Joyce]

The will of John Joyce, husbandman, of Yarmouth, Mass., was made 28 December, 1714, and proved 6 April, 1715. The inventory was taken 3 February, 1714/15, and presented by the widow, Esther Joyce. The will provides that the widow and the testator's brother Samuel Joyce shall be executors, and mentions his brother Thomas Joyce; his unmarried daughters Desire and Fear; "My Wives Sister Elizabeth White"; lands given to testator by his father. The witnesses were Daniel Greenleaf, Ebenezer Howes and John Hall. [Barnstable Co. Prob. Records, III : 344.]

[Will of Joseph[4] White]

The will of Joseph[4] White of Yarmouth, Mass., was made 7 March, 1775, and proved 20 August, 1782. No inventory is recorded. The will mentions wife Lydia; daughter Anna Crowell; granddaughter Huldah Crowell; son Joseph White, who is to be sole executor. The witnesses were David Thatcher, John Thatcher and William Thatcher. [Barnstable Co. Prob. Records, XIV : 134.]

[Will of Joseph[5] White]

The will of Joseph[5] White, yeoman, of Yarmouth, Mass., was dated 28 August, 1800, and proved 12 January, 1813. It mentions wife Rebecca and son Isaac, who are to be the executors; also sons Peregrine and Joseph; daughter Lydia Black, wife of Alexander Black; daughter Polly Hall, wife of Peter Hall; children of daughter Azubah Hallett deceased; granddaughter Harriet Hallett. [Barnstable Co. Prob. Records, XXXII : 225 and XXXVII : 45.]

[WILL OF JOSEPH[6] WHITE]

The will of Joseph[6] White of Yarmouth, Mass., was dated 17 June, 1816, and proved 12 August, 1816. It mentions wife Lucy White; unmarried son Joseph White, Jr., to be sole executor; sons Otis White and Prentiss White, both unmarried; "my Mother Rebecca white." [Barnstable Co. Prob. Records, XXXII: 164 & 358.]

[WILL OF PEREGRINE[7] WHITE]

The will of Peregrine[7] White, yeoman, of Yarmouth, Mass., was dated 14 October, 1833, and proved 14 January, 1834. It mentions "my Six Sons," as follows: "my three youngest sons," Nelson White, Rufus White and Henry White, all under age; "my three oldest sons," Peregrine White, Jr. (who is to be sole executor), Alfred White and William White. [Barnstable Co. Prob. Records, LIII: 320.]

PILGRIM NOTES AND QUERIES

NOTES

AARON[3] SOULE'S WIFE. The Editor has had many inquiries for the maiden name of Mary, the wife of Aaron[3] Soule (John[2], George[1]) of Duxbury and Pembroke. Just as we are going to press he has discovered documentary evidence which proves that she was the daughter of Deacon John and Abigail (Andrews) Wadsworth of Duxbury. This evidence will be printed in our July issue.

JABEZ FITCH, JR., AND "GENERAL ORDERS OF 1757." In 1899 Hon. W. Seward Webb published, under the title "General Orders of 1757" an orderly book of Gen. Phineas Lyman's regiment in the campaign against the French in 1757. A facsimile of the first page of the orderly book was given, and when the Editor of this magazine saw this illustration he at once recognized the handwriting of Jabez Fitch, Jr., whose "Diary" we are publishing. An examination of this diary for possible references to the orderly book disclosed the entries dated 27, 30 and 31 December, 1757, and 5 January, 1758, all included in the portion printed on pages 71 to 74 of this issue.

The purchase of paper which was made into a book, on 27 December, may not refer to this orderly book, but its first page bears a striking resemblance to the little home-made books in which the "Diary" was written; and the quantity of paper which Fitch "Made into a Book" would have supplied many of the little books which he made for the "Diary." Three days later the "First orders of ye Regt" were written, and on 5 January Fitch was "Vary Deligent in Writing orders & Got as Far as ye 1st of July," which indicates that he was recording in a book orders which had been kept on loose sheets.

Small Teſtimony of that great HONOUR due to that Honourable Servant of GOD and his Generation

John Alden Eſq;

Who changed this life for a better, Sept. 12*th. Anno Domini* 1687.

Annoq; Ætatis 89.

The memory of the juſt is bleſſed.

The juſt ſhall be had in everlaſting remembrance.

GOD brought a choice Vine to this deſart land:
And here did plant it with his own right hand,
And from the heathen's rage did it defend.
The which its root, from eaſt to weſt did ſend.
This precious Saint who now is gone to reſt,
And lie in Jeſus boſom to be bleſt,
A branch was of this vine, God did remove,
Proteſt, defend, and water from above.
A man to God's commands that had reſpect,
And by His word he did his courſe direct.
A lover of God's Habitation.
A ſervant of his Generation.
He was according to the Will of God,
While in this lower world he had abode.
Sincere & faithful unto God was he,
True Vertue's friend, to Vice an enemy.
Holy and humble, full of Faith, & Love
To Saints on earth, to God & Chriſt above.
He many years did ſerve this Colony,
Adminiſtring Juſtice impartially.
He in this deſart many changes ſaw,
Yet cloſely kept unto Jehovah's Law.
He Served God betimes, even from his youth,
And conſtantly did cleave unto his Truth.
On Piſgah's mount he ſtood, and Canaan view'd
Which in his heart and life he moſt purſu'd.
On Tabor's mount he ſaw transfigured
Bleſſed Jeſus, which within his boſom bred
That love that made him ſay, 'Tis good being here,
Its good, yea better than to be elſe where.
He lov'd on earth, to be with Chriſt on high:
He did on wings of Contemplation fly.
To God in heaven he ſent up many a dart,
Which iſſued from a truly broken heart,
Which reach'd the ear of God, and ſuch Return
From heaven brought which made his heart to
With Enoch he with God on earth did walk & burn.
With Abram he did with JEHOVAH talk.
With Moſes he did on the mount aſcend,
And to receive God's mind himſelf did bend
That he ſuch meditations had divine
Which in Saints eyes did cauſe his face to ſhine.
With length of days God did him ſatisfy,
He liv'd ſo long, that he deſir'd to die.
He with old Simeon had of Chriſt a ſight,
Who was prepar'd to be the Gentiles Light:
Which made him willing hence for to depart,
To be with Him that gained had his heart.
He with good Jacob in his aged ſtate
Did earneſtly for God's Salvation wait.
He with Barzillai, being near his end,
His thoughts 'bove earthly comforts did aſcend.
He with St. Paul, his courſe now finiſhed,
Unclothed, is quietly put to bed.
His Family and Chriſtian friends he bleſt
Before he did betake himſelf to reſt.
He to Religion was a real friend
And Juſtice, till death brought him to his end.
A man for God, and for his Countries Good,
In all Relations wherein he ſtood.

Let ALDEN's all their Father imitate,
And follow him till they come to death's ſtate:
And he will them moſt heartily embrace,
When he ſhall meet them in that bleſſed place.
And let New-England never want a Race
Of ſuch as may be fill'd with Alden's Grace.

THE MAYFLOWER DESCENDANT

Vol. IX JULY, 1907 No. 3

A RARE BROADSIDE ON THE DEATH OF JOHN ALDEN

Reprinted from the Original

With Notes by GEORGE ERNEST BOWMAN

THROUGH the courtesy of a member of the Society of Mayflower Descendants, who owns the original, the Editor has been permitted to reprint the rare broadside on the death of John Alden shown in the illustration facing this page. The original broadside is about thirteen and three-eighths inches high by eight inches wide, and as it bears the statement that it was printed in the year 1687 it must have been issued less than four months after John Alden died. I have not found any mention of this broadside, or of any reprint of it, and think it probable that it is now for the first time reprinted.

The Massachusetts Historical Society owns a reprint of another broadside on the death of John Alden, but no copy of the original is known. The reprint is signed "J. C." and bears the imprint "Reprinted for T. A. Jun. 1806." This was again reprinted by Rev. Timothy Alden, Jr., in 1814, in his "Collection of American Epitaphs," in which he stated that it had several times appeared in print and was supposed to have been written by Rev. John Cotton of Plymouth.

The date of John Alden's death is not found on the records of Plymouth Colony, or of the town of Duxbury, and the only contemporary statement of the date heretofore known is that in Sewall's Diary, which says that he died on Monday, 12 September, 1687. He was alive on 19 August, 1687, when he signed and acknowledged the first deed quoted in the "Alden Notes" in the following pages, and the settlement of his estate, printed in our third volume, shows that his inventory was taken on 31 October, 1687. He must have died, therefore, between these two dates, both in the year 1687, and the statement so often repeated, that he died in 1686, is an error. I have made no attempt to trace the first appearance of this error, but have noted it in Thacher's History of Plymouth, published in 1832, and in many publications of later date.

If sufficient encouragement is received from those interested in the broadside now reprinted, a facsimile reproduction, of the exact size of the original, will be issued by the Massachusetts Society of Mayflower Descendants. Inquiries may be addressed to the Editor.

The broadside reads as follows:

Yet closely kept unto Jehovah's Law.
He Served God betimes, even from his youth,

And constantly did cleave unto his Truth.
On Pisgah's mount he stood, and Canaan view'd
Which in his heart and life he most pursu'd.
On Tabor's mount he saw transfigured
Blest Jesus, which within his bosom bred
That love that made him say, 'Tis good being here,
Its good, yea better than to be else-where.
He lov'd on earth, to be with Christ on high:
He did on wings of Contemplation fly.
To God in heaven he sent up many a dart,
Which issued from a truly broken heart;
Which reach'd the ear of God, and such Return
From heaven brought which made his heart to burn.
With Enoch he with God on earth did walk
With Abram he did with JEHOVAH talk.
With Moses he did on the mount ascend,
And to receieve God's mind himself did bend
That he such meditations had divine,
Which in Saints eyes did cause his face to shine.
With length of days God did him satisfy,
He liv'd so long, that he desir'd to die.
He with old Simeon had of Christ a sight,
Who was prepar'd to be the Gentiles Light:
Which made him willing hence for to depart,
To be with Him that gained had his heart.
He with good Jacob in his aged state
Did earnestly for God's Salvation wait.
He with Barzillai, being near his end,
His thoughts 'bove earthly comforts did ascend.
He with St. Paul, his course now finished,
Unclothed, is quietly put to bed.
His Family and Christian friends he blest
Before he did betake himself to rest.
He to Religion was a real friend
And Justice, till death brought him to his end.
A man for God, and for his Countries Good,
In all Relations wherein he stood.

Let ALDEN's all their Father imitate,
And follow him till they come to death's state:
And he will them most heartily embrace,
When he shall meet them in that blessed place.
And let New-England never want a Race
Of such as may be fill'd with Alden's Grace.

(Concluded from page 99)

March ye 14th 1713/14 are run fifty three years of my Short time The fifty fourth is Just this day begun with how much Shame may I look back upon
So many years the which are past & gone and truly Say as he did Spake of old My years are past Like as a tale that's told lord help me to improve the little Space which yet is granted me of thy free grace unto thy glory my gratious lord be pleased grace and wisdom to afford for one year more which now is coming on thy Sparing mercy I depend upon for me and mine O let it never fail and covenant blessings Lord on us contail

in the year that is past I have Seen that which is hard to bear even the loss of a lovly Son which it pleased the lord to take away by the Stroake of death the Lord gives and the lord takes away blessed be the name of the Lord but it is hard to flesh and blood and the woormwood and the gall my Soul hath Still in remembrance and is humbled within me : also in the year past I have [p. 38] been made the Subject of many mercyes as in Special and perticaler I have been by the mercy of god restored to health from Sickness at Boston and also contagious distemper called the measels has passed throught my family with much moderation which I would ever acknolege as a favour of god thus would I Stir up my heavy heart to Sing of mercy and Judgment and pray always that I may have grace given me to behave my Self wisely in a perfect way untill the lord come unto me and manifest himself in a way of free grace unto my Soul here in this life and at last come and recive me into the Eternal kingdom of his glory even so come Lord Jesus . amen & amen

A wreched Sorry fruitless worm am I unfit to live therefore not fit to die
Then grant me Space and grace O lord that I may Strenght recall before that I from hence do go and be no more at all on the eighteenth day of may anno Dom 1714 I had another Son born of my wife bennet whose name we called Benjamin : in Remembrance of my dear Son Benjamin who latly departed this life

[p. 39] March ye 14th 1715/16 about noon This afternoon I have Set apart by the leave of my glorious Lord : to Send in meditation and prayer. I having now : passed throught the various changes of fifty five years in my earthly pilgramage and am this day Entering on the fifty Sixth year thereof : Lord I have been an unprofitable Servant and from my heart I desire and pray with the publican Lord be mercyfull to me a Sinner for Lord if thou Shouldest mark mine Iniquities I am Sure I can never stand in thy presence therefore utterly dispairing of being Justified on the account of my own righteousness I desire as the poor man did to cast away my garments and to run to the Lord Jesus christ I am Sure most blessed and glorious Lord that there is Enough in the for thou art a fountain that canst never be drawn dry Therefore O most blessed Jesus Seeing my Self to be poor and miserable & wretched and blind and naked I come unto thee for gold tried in the fire to inrich me I come unto thee for thy free grace and mercy for what is more Suitable then mercy for the miserable and being wreched Even as a wreched as an outcast infant O lord I beg thy pitty and tender compasion that thou wouldest please to pitty my poor Soul though no other eye doth and Lord I am by nature blind lord I com unto the for Eye Salve to heal my Spiri[t]uall [p. 40] blindness . lord open thou the eyes of my under Standing and cause me to see these wonderous things out of thy law lord I am naked cloath thou me with the milk white robe of thine own righteousness and be thou the lord my Righteousness. I have Said unto O Lord thou art my lord my goodness extendeth not to thee but yet blessed lord let thy goodness be extended to me and mine not according to the works which I have done but according to thy great mercy O Lord pardon for christs Sake our Miserable falures in the year past and in thy boundless Mercy and free grace Spare : Spare us one year longer if it may be thy good pleasure however O blessed & glorious lord for the Sake of the beloved . fit me and mine for whatever tryals or temptations thou in thy fatherly wisdow Shall please to Exercise any of us with all, and fit us for all duty thou callest for from us and grant that in all tryalls or conflicts from or which the flesh the world or devil we may be more then conquerors thro him that has loved us Amen amen

Memorandom on the Eighth day of July in ye year of our Lord 1714 there being then a Sore and [p. 41] threatning drought in the land Especially in barnstable county our pastor appointed this day to be Set apart to Seek mercy of the Lord on that account by Earnest prayer and Subblycation in & by the church and town of eastham and the lord was Gratiously pleased to hear & answer our prayers and that right Early and Spedily for this day being thrusday before that week was expired we had a very plentuous rain and was followed which repeated Showers of moderate rain whereby the weary Earth was refrished and the fruit and pasture wonderfully rephenished as also this Same Summer we had the like gratious answer to our prayers on the Same occation this I record that the generations to come may be incorrageed to call upon and put their trust in the lord

on the thirteenth day of may anno dommini 1716 My dearly beloved wife Bennet departed this life being five and fourty years two months and five and twenty dayes old being great with child and within two weeks of the time of her travel having lived with me in married State upwards of seven and twenty years (a most Solomn and awful Stroack indeed) [p. 42] and Shee has been the mother of thirteenth children which were born of her body all born alive Save one a Rich blessing She was to me indeed but now alas my God has called her away and She is gone to rest forever freed (as I have good reason to hope) from all Sin and Sorrow for what Sayes our Saviour Christ this day Shalt thou be with me in paridise So that the Souls of belevers do immediately pass into glory when they leave the body — this is to me matter of consolation in the Midst of my heart distressing Sorrows. She was indeed the desire of my Eyes and the Joy of my heart a most profitable and pleasant companion a most loving and obedient wife a tender and compationate mother a kind mistress a curtious neighbour and Steady and fast friend but above all and that which Crowned all She was a good christian one that delighted to attend the worship of god both in publick and private and was not a Stranger to closet communion with god, but alas . alas the Temple wherein this blessed Soul did dwell is lain in the dust there to abide till the resurrection of the Just then by the almighty power of god to be raised in glory to Sing Eternal praises to our [p. 43] Glorious & blessed redeemer where I hope through the riches of free grace to meet her and till then adieu my dearest mate

Benjamin Paine my second Son of that Name dyed on the fourteenth day of January anno domini 1716/17 : a most lovly and pleasant child of about two years and Eight month old. Thus the lord is pleased by one Stroak after a nother to diminish my family and mercy worldly glory o that the lord would please to Shew me wherefore he thus afflicts me and that he would please to teach me what I See not and enable me by his grace that wherein I have done Iniquity I may do So no more

I hope in heaven my precious Babe is blest and that with Jesus he is now at rest
The lord gives and the lord takes away
Blessed be the name of the lord our Earthly Comforts are but mercyes lent us and of Such bleessings Soon may death prevent us

March ye 14th 1716/17 the fifth day of the week . fifty Six years have rouled away and I am this day Entring on the fifty Seventh of my Earthly pilgramage god only knows what this year may brin[g] forth on Such a day [p. 44] was I born . (viz) on a thursday the 14th of march and Such a day I was maried to my beloved wife the greatest worldly blessing that ever I Enjoyed the year past hath been to me a time of trouble Sore and heavy tryals have I been Exercised withal the god of all grace and father of all mercyes through Jesus christ cause these to work for my Spiritual Eternal good and grant this year now runing may be a year of mercy to me and mine respectively

October the 8th 1718 This day being a day set apart by the church of christ in Eastham for a day of fasting and prayer and in a Solemn way and manner to renew our Covenant with god and one another I think it my duty therefore Solemnly and Seriously in the fear of god first in Secrit between God and my own Soul to renew my Covenant obligations to be the lords and to walk with him (his grace and Spirit assising me) in wayes of covenant obedience and duty beging and imploring his alsufficent grace [p. 45] to be communicated unto me according to the abundant riches of his free grace in Jesus christ my only and glorious Lord Redeemer who keepeth covenant and mercy forever : Therefo[re] acknowledging my Self to be a miserable Sinner and unworthy of the least of Gods mercyes and that I have by my Sins deserved to be forever cast out of gods favour & to be rejected as an unprofitable Serant . I do this day (as I humbly hope) in the fear of god Solemnly renew my covenant obligation to be the lords Servant . and do with awfull fear and reverance Choose the Great Jehovah father Son and holy Ghost to be my God my King my Lord and lawgiver I Choose the lord Jesus christ to be the Priest the prophet and King of my miserable soul promising and ingaging in the fear of god and by the assistance of his alsufficient grace & Spirit that as I hope for and Expect to be taug[ht] by his Spirit and to be Sanctified and to recive pardon and remission of all my Sins through the Efficacy of his merits death and pass[ion] and to be [worn] in the [p. 46] [worn] day of his coming & apearance (as my glorious High priest) as my glorious King and lawgiver to Submit unto all his holy law and Ordinance which he hath appoin[t]ed and I do choose and accept of the holy Ghost as my Sanctifier and directer according as my lord hath promised that he will give the Spirit of truth to lead into all truth and to teach us all things and I do make Choice of the word of god [as] it is contained in the holy Scriptures as my rule to walk by & that I will make it my care and Study to live in conformity thereunto and now O Glorious Lord please in infinite mercy to look upon me through the merits and mediation of my Glorious lord Redeem[er] pardoning all my Sins and bloting out all my transgression my Sinfull breaches and violations of thy Holy Covenant Justifie me freely O most mercyfull Father for the righteousness Sake of the Lord Jesus Christ and Sanctify me by thy holy Spirit co-opporateing with thy word of [tr]uth and O thou glorious lord who [worn]

THe ſtaffe of bread, and water eke the ſtay,
From ſinning Judah God will take away.
The prudent Counſellour, the Honourable,
Whom Grace and Holineſs makes deſirable,
The Judge, the Prophet and the ancient Saint,
The deaths of ſuch cauſe ſorrowful complaint,
The Earth and its Inhabitants do fall,
The aged Saints bears up its pillars all.
The hoary head in way of Righteouſneſs
A crown of glory is. Who can expreſs
Th' abundant bleſſings by Diſciples old!
In very deed they 're more than can be told.
The caſe 'tis of a wanton generation
To wiſh the aged ſoon might quit their ſtation,
Tho' truth it be, The Lord our God does frown
When aged Saints dy death do tumble down.
What tho' there be not ſuch Activity,
Yet in their Prayers there's ſuch Fervency
As doth great mercy for a place obtain,
And gracious preſence of the Lord maintain.
Tho' Nature's ſtrength in old age doth decay,
His walk was holy, humble, and ſincere,
His heart was filled with' JEHOVAH's Fear.
He honour'd GOD with much integrity,
God therefore did him truly magnify.
The hearts of Saints intirely did him love,
His Uprightneſs ſo highly did approve.
That whilſt to chooſe they had their liberty
Within the Limits of this Colony
Their Civil Leaders, him they ever choſe.
His Faithfulneſs made hearts with him to cloſe.
With all the Governours he did Aſſiſt;
His Name recorded is within the Liſt
Of Plimouth's Pillars to his dying day.
His Name is precious to eternal Ay.
He ſet his Love on God and knew His Name,
God therefore gives him everlaſting Fame.
So good and heav'nly was his Converſation,
God gave long life, and ſhew'd him His Salvation.
(His work now finiſhed upon this earth;
Seeing the death of what he ſaw the birth)
His gracious Lord from heaven calls him home,

The very preſence of a Saint in years
Who liſts his ſoul to God with pray'rs & tears,
Is a rich bleſſing unto any place
Who have that mercy to behold his face:
When ſin is ripe and calls for deſolation (on
God will call home old Saints from ſuch a nation
Let ſinners then of th' Aged weary be.
God give us grace to mourn moſt heartily
For death of this dear ſervant of the Lord,
Whoſe life God did to us ſo long afford:
God lent his life to greateſt length of dayes;
In which he liv'd to his Redeemer's praiſe.
In youthful time he made Moſes his choice,
His ſoul obeying great JEHOVAH's voice,
Freely forſook the world for ſake of GOD,
In His Houſe with His Saints to have abode.
He followed GOD into this Wilderneſs;
Thereby to all the world he did profeſs,
Affliction with the Saints a better part
And more delightful to his holy heart
Than ſinful pleaſures, laſting but a ſeaſon:
Thus ſaid his Faith, ſo faith not carnal Reaſon.
He came one of the firſt into this Land,
And here was kept by God's moſt gracious hand
Years ſixty ſeven, which time he did behold
To poor New-England mercies Manifold:
All God's great works to this His Iſrael
From firſt implanting what to them befel:
Of them he made a ſerious Obſervation,
And could of them preſent a large Narration.

Thou haſt done good, thou faithfulneſs Alſo,
Now ſhalt thou live in bliſs ETERNALLY.
On dying bed his Aiſles were very great,
Yet verily his heart on GOD was fet.
He bare his greifs with Faith and Patience,
And did maintain his lively confidence:
Saying to ſome, The work which God begun,
He would preſerve to its perfection.
His mouth was full of bleſſings till his death
To Miniſters and Chriſtians all: his breath
Was very ſweet by many a precious word
He utter'd from the Spirit of his Lord.
He liv'd in Chriſt, in Jeſus now he ſleeps:
And his bleſt ſoul the Lord in ſafety keeps.

Where he is bleſt to all Eternity.
Who walk with God as he hath do bleſt,
And evermore in Chriſt His arms ſhall reſt.

Lord, Spare thy remnant, do not us forſake,

THE MAYFLOWER DESCENDANT

Vol. IX OCTOBER, 1907 No. 4

THE ORIGINAL BROADSIDE BY "J. C." ON THE DEATH OF JOHN ALDEN

Communicated by ALFRED BAYLIES PAGE

THE communication by the Editor of The Mayflower Descendant, to the July number of the magazine, of A Rare Broadside On The Death Of John Alden, furnishes a distinct addition to the memorials of the famous Pilgrim. This newly discovered publication is equally interesting and valuable as a hitherto unknown specimen of Early American Poetry, even though the author of the verses has not been identified.

The other poetical tribute to John Alden, by "J. C.," mentioned in Mr. Bowman's article, is well known on account of its republication at various times; but in its original broadside form this is of equal rarity, and has also escaped the notice of bibliographers. A copy of this broadside is preserved in the library of the Boston Athenæum, and through the courtesy of the librarian, Mr. Charles K. Bolton, a facsimile reproduction is here given. This broadside is bound in with an early file of the Boston News-Letter, where it has hitherto lain unnoticed. On the back of the sheet appears this inscription, in an unknown hand: "J^{no} Alden Esq^{r} 7^{r}. 12. 1687."

The Reverend Timothy Alden, in his American Epitaphs, Volume III (1814), ascribes the authorship of these verses to the Reverend John Cotton (1640–1699) of Plymouth, and this identification has been accepted by Justin Winsor, in his History of Duxbury; but the production is overlooked by John Langdon Sibley in his list of the writings of Cotton.

This broadside is somewhat smaller than the one reproduced in the July issue, being about eleven and three-eighths inches high by seven and one-fourth inches wide.

The fortuitous preservation of these two contemporary poetical tributes to John Alden is worthy of notice; and it is especially fitting, since it has now become possible, that they should be brought together as companion pieces.

If sufficient encouragement is received from those interested in the broadside now reprinted, a facsimile reproduction, of the exact size of the original, will be issued by the Massachusetts Society of Mayflower Descendants. Inquiries should be addressed to the Editor of The Mayflower Descendant.

The Elegy reads as follows:

Upon the DEATH of that Aged, Pious, Sincere-hearted CHRISTIAN,

JOHN ALDEN ESQ:

N.B. I published M^r^ Gallishan and Miss Thankful above, vocally: They stood three Sabbaths, the first and last of which I notified their Intention of Marriage; but the second Sabbath I forgot to publish them. When y^e^ three Sabbaths were out, they sent word for me to marry them, and I consented, for y^e^ Guests were invited, and y^e^ Time Set, and I was afraid it would be an Occasion of Disaffection and Confusion if I should refuse; which Consideration influenced me to marry them rather than deny; laying my Account to bear the Consequences of my so doing. J: Scott.

[THOMAS DEXTER'S DEPOSITION]

"THOMAS DEXTER aged about Sixty five Years .testifieth & Saith y^t^ in y^e^ Year — 1694 — I was present at Rochester with William Wyate Surveyor & John Benson Sen^r^ & Mark Hascall all since deceas^d^ When a twenty Acre Lot was laid out to John Dexter & said to be laid out at y^e^ head of y^e^ Second Wood Lot and they began at a Cedar Stake which they Set up by a Way which went from the House w^ch^ John White Sold to Capt^n^ Holmes to Peter Blackmers House which he first dwelt in at Rochester & from thence they ran North 52 : Rods to another Stake w^ch^ they Erected by a Way w^ch^ went from Sam^l^ Whites Dec^d^ his Dwelling House to the Beaver Damm wher Peter Crapoo now dwells — And Since y^e^ laying out of s^d^ Lot I have often Seen y^e^ Bounds & this day have been upon y^e^ s^d^ twenty Acre Lot & Saw a Cedar Stake Standing by the Way first Mentioned which I am well Satisfied was the place where they began & they called it the head of the Second Wood Lot, & I have also seen a red oak Stake at y^e^ North End of s^d^ 20 . acre Lot by the Way going to Peter Crapoos in y^e^ Same Place where y^e^ s^d^ Stake was first Erected as I Judge by reason of a very remarkable dead tree with a great Limb which hung over s^d^ Way but is Since gone, a Stump remaining And y^e^ Southerly Bounds of s^d^ Twenty Acre Lot as M^r^ Wyate erect^d^ them is a considerable Distance North from the Northerly End of y^e^ s^d^ Second Wood Lot as it is now reputed to be. And this day Capt. Ed: Winslow was present on s^d^ Lot, & according to his Information y^e^ Most of his Nineteen Acres was laid out in y^e^ Same Place where I Saw y^e^ s^d^ twenty Acre Lot laid out

[Deposition of John[4] White (Samuel[3], Resolved[2])]

"John White of about Seventy Years of age testifieth & saith that I am well knowing to the twenty acre Lot laid out to John Dexter at or near y^e^ head of his own Land which y^e^ Clarkes now Claim, ever since the laying out thereof by M^r^ Wyate & the reputed bounds thereof, & the first Corner Bounds a Cedar Stake Mentioned in y^e^ Records as I Judge is the Same or stands in or near y^e^ Same place where I first Saw it when or soon after it was first laid out being at y^e^ Southerly End of s^d^ Lot by an old Way which leads from the house which Capt. Holmes dwelt in to Peter Blackmers House he first dwelt in in Rochester, and also have ever since known y^e^ Northerly Corner Bound being a red Oak Stake standing by a Way which leads from the Dwelling house of my Hon^d^ Father Samuel White deceas^d^ to Beaver Dam where Peter Crapoo now lives, S^d^ Stake standing by y^e^ Stump of an old tree then dead standing by s^d^ Way, which has always been the reputed Northerly Corner Bounds of s^d^ Lot. And altho . it is said that y^e^ s^d^ 20 . acre Lot is laid out adjoyning to the Second Wood Lot, Yet according as the s^d^ Stakes then were & now are which I have known as afores^d^ the South End of s^d^ 20 . Acre Lot does not Extend so far Southerly as to join s^d^ Second Wood Lot, as s^d^ Wood Lot is now reputed to be bounded, & according to the Bounds of y^e^ . 19 . Acres laid out by Capt. Winslow as he told Me the s^d^ . 19 . Acres is mostly laid out upon the twenty acre Lot laid out for s^d^ Dexter

UNRECORDED BARNSTABLE COUNTY DEEDS

[Ninety-three volumes of the Barnstable County, Mass., Records of Deeds were destroyed by fire in October, 1827, only one volume being saved. After the fire a portion of the deeds which had been recorded in the burned volumes were re-recorded in the Barnstable Registry, but at the present time there are in private hands hundreds of original deeds of land in Barnstable County, many of them dated before 1700, of which no public record now exists. In order to preserve and make accessible the historical and genealogical material contained in these unrecorded documents, the Massachusetts Society of Mayflower Descendants is making a record of all that are available through gift or temporary loan to the Society.

A literal copy of each document is made by the Editor in books provided for this purpose, and as each book is completed a careful index of every name and place mentioned in it will be added. Abstracts of these deeds will be published in "The Mayflower Descendant" from time to time.

Information regarding the present ownership of old deeds of land in Barnstable County will be gratefully received, and the owners may be sure that if these documents are temporarily loaned to the Society they will have the best of care and, in many cases, will be better protected in the Society's safe than in their present resting places.]

THE document on which are written the two deeds here abstracted was loaned to the Society by Hon. John Kendrick of Orleans, Mass.

AARON[3] SOULE'S WIFE MARY WADSWORTH AND THE MARRIAGES OF FIVE OF HER SISTERS

By George Ernest Bowman

Just as the April issue was going to press I discovered the parentage of Mary the wife of Aaron[3] Soule (John[2], George[1]) and announced that the proof would be published in the July issue. There had not been time to study the other marriage connections affected by the document containing this proof, therefore I made no mention of them. The investigation of these marriages necessitated a personal examination of the original records at Duxbury, Marshfield and Plymouth, Mass., and at Plainfield, Lebanon and Groton, Conn., as well as of much manuscript data belonging to this Society, and it was impossible to complete the work in time to publish the article in the July issue.

The results obtained, however, were well worth the delay, since I have been able to prove not only that Aaron[3] Soule's wife Mary was the daughter of Deacon John and Abigail

* The words in italics are later additions to the record.

(Andrews) Wadsworth of Duxbury, but also that Jonathan Peterson's wife Lydia was a daughter of Deacon Wadsworth, not of Rodolphus Thacher, as heretofore claimed, and that this Lydia Thacher married John Dean. The parentage of Jacob Tomson's wife Abigail Wadsworth, of Benjamin Peterson's wife Hannah Wadsworth, of William Sprague's wife Grace, and of William Brewster's wife Hopestill Wadsworth is also established by the evidence here presented, all of them having been daughters of Deacon John and Abigail Wadsworth.

Deacon John Wadsworth died 15 May, 1700, "about Sixty two yeares of age." His widow, Abigail, died "about Midnight betwixt y^e^ 24^th^ and 25^th^" of November, 1723, "about 76 years of age." "Hannah Peterson y^e^ wife of Benjamin Peterson" died "the night following the 6^th^" of February, 1732/3. ["General Records Dates Included 1645–1749 Town of Duxbury," p. 166.]

The will of John Wadsworth, Sr., of Duxbury, was dated 23 April, 1700, and probated 30 July, 1700. It names wife Abigail; eldest son John; second son Christopher, third son Ichabod and youngest son Isaac, all three under age; son-in-law Jacob Tomson; "my three daughters which are married"; "my daughter Lydia & Grace which are of age Shall have two cows each of them And wedding cloaths"; "my two daughters that are in their nonage hopestill & Mercy"; "my children which are in their nonage & Sarah that is non Compis mentis Shall be under their mothers care." [Plym. Co. Prob. Records, I : 323.]

The widow Abigail Wadsworth left no will and Jacob Tomson, Esq., of Middleborough was appointed administrator of her estate, 20 December, 1723. [Plym. Co. Prob. Records, IV : 379.] There is no other mention of her estate on the probate records, but in the files I found the original inventory of her estate. Omitting the items of personal property taken by the several daughters, the document reads as follows: "A true Inventory of all and singular the personal Estate of m^rs^ Abigail Wadsworth Widdow : late of Duxborough Deceased Taken the fourth day of December : 1723 : and since Taken in the custody of her daughters Respectively as it fell by lot unto them ; as followeth Imprimis : unto Mary Soul . . . . . Item : unto Abigail Tomson . . . . . Item unto Sarah Wadsworth . . . . . Item unto Hannah Peterson . . . . . Item unto Lydia Peterson . . . . . Item unto Grace Sprague . . . . . Item unto Hopestill Brewster . . . . . Item : unto Mercy Wadsworth . . . . . ."

This inventory was made out, in the handwriting of Jacob Tomson, on 4 December, 1723, and appraised on 3 March, 1723/4, by John Alden and "Ben." Delano. Mercy Wadsworth received two shares, the others one share each.

John Wadsworth and Abigail Andrews were married 25 July, 1667, and the births of five of their children are recorded at Duxbury, viz.: Mary, 18 December, 1668; Abigail, 25 October, 1670; John, 12 March, 1671/2; Christopher, 15 March, 1684/5; Ichabod, in March, 1686/7. [Ante, VIII : 232 and IX : 172, 175, 230.] The probate records and files quoted show that the other children living in 1700 were Sarah, Hannah, Lydia, Grace, Hopestill, Mercy and Isaac.

Abigail Wadsworth married Jacob[3] Tomson (Mary[2] Cooke, Francis[1]) 28 December, 1693. Hannah Wadsworth married Benjamin Peterson 9 February, 1698. Hopestill Wadsworth married William[4] Brewster (William[3], Love[2], William[1]) 20 May, 1708. [Ante, II : 43; VIII : 232; IX : 108.] Sarah Wadsworth was non compos mentis in 1700 and still unmarried in 1723. Mercy Wadsworth was unmarried in 1723 and I have not traced her farther. The other three daughters in 1723 were called Mary Soule, Lydia Peterson and Grace Sprague.

Mary, the wife of Aaron[3] Soule, was buried at Pembroke, and her gravestone states that she died 9 May, 1741, in her 73d year. This agrees with the date of birth of John and Abigail Wadsworth's daughter Mary, and as this daughter was called Mary Soule in the settlement of her mother's estate, in 1723, there can be no doubt that Mary Wadsworth married Aaron[3] Soule (John[2], George[1]). The date of the marriage I have been unable to find, but discovered, on the fifth page of the oldest book of records of the First Church at Marshfield, a child not heretofore noticed, I believe: "Christopher Soul Son of Aaron Soul of Duxbury was baptized May 28th 1699" It was this name, Christopher, which led to the investigation of the Wadsworth family and the identification of the child's mother.

Grace Wadsworth was of age, but unmarried, at the date of her father's will, 23 April, 1700, and was called Grace Sprague 4 December, 1723, in the settlement of her mother's estate. The record of her marriage to William Sprague has not been found, but William and Grace Sprague had children, according to the Duxbury Records, as follows: Ruth, 22 February, 1701/2; Zeruiah, 10 December, 1704; Jethro, 30 November, 1709; Terah, 17 February, 1711/12. [Ante, VIII : 233.] Grace Sprague was appointed administratrix of the estate of her husband on 21 February, 1712; and on 21 March, 1715/16, the estate was settled, the widow receiving her thirds, and the remainder being divided "among the four Children," "Eldest son Jethro," "Second son Terah," "Eldest daughter Ruth," "Youngest daughter Zurviah." [Plym. Co. Probate Records, III : 203, 394.]

Josiah Wormall and Grace Sprague, both of Duxbury, were married 25 December, 1723. [Ante 4 : 72.] Grace Wormall of Duxbury was appointed administratrix of the estate of her late husband Josiah on 3 November, 1738, and the widow's thirds of the real estate were set off to her 7 July, 1740. [Plym. Co. Probate Records, VII : 449, VIII : 239.] Grace Wormall, widow, of Duxbury made her will 13 January, 1748, and it was proved 3 April, 1758. She mentioned sons Jethro Sprague and Terah Sprague; daughter Zerviah Chandler; "my Six Grand Childeren the Childeren of My Daughter Ruth late deced viz, to William Keen, Levi Keen, Abel Keen, Samuell Keen, Josiah Keen, & Grace Cole"; granddaughters Silvina Sprague and Grace Sprague; grandson Reuben Chandler; grandson William Sprague. [Plym. Co. Probate Records, XIV : 503.]

The foregoing abstracts prove that Grace Wadsworth married William Sprague in 1700 or 1701, became a widow in 1712 or 1713, and was married again, in 1723, to Josiah Wormall, whom she survived about twenty years.

Deacon John Wadsworth's fifth daughter, Lydia, was of age, but unmarried, when her father made his will, 23 April, 1700, and had become Lydia Peterson before 4 December, 1723, according to the settlement of her mother's estate. The only Lydia Peterson I could find, who could possibly be the one named in this document, was Lydia the wife of Jonathan Peterson of Duxbury. But Winsor's History of Duxbury, published in 1849, states that Jonathan Peterson married Lydia the daughter of Rodolphus Thacher of Duxbury, and this appears to have been accepted without question hitherto. It was necessary, therefore, to determine whether Lydia Thacher married Jonathan Peterson or some one else — or died unmarried. The investigation was rendered more difficult by the various migrations of the Thacher family, but I was able to secure absolute proof that Lydia Thacher married, not Jonathan Peterson of Duxbury, but John Dean of Plainfield, Lebanon and Groton, Conn.

As already stated, Lydia Wadsworth was still unmarried on 23 April, 1700, and became Lydia Peterson before 4 December, 1723. Jonathan and Lydia Peterson had children born at Duxbury as follows: John, 22 August, 1701; Hopestill, 20 January, 1703; Jonathan, 20 September, 1706; Reuben, 8 April, 1710. The births of these four children, with those of William and Grace Sprague and of Jacob the son of Benjamin and Hannah Peterson are the only records on this page of the original. [Ante, VIII : 233.]

Lydia the widow of Jonathan Peterson died 26 May, 1756, aged 77 years, 3 months, 3 days. She was born, therefore, 13 February, 1678, old style, (or 23 February, 1679, new style). [Ante, IX : 161.] Lydia the daughter of Rodolphus and Ruth Thacher was born 24 January, 1679, according to the Duxbury records. [Ante, IX : 175.] This date is undoubtedly in old style. If this supposition is correct, Lydia Thacher was born 3 February, 1680, new style, or nearly one year after Lydia Wadsworth. If the year as recorded had already been changed to new style, which is not probable, then Lydia Thacher was about one month the older. This difference in ages would alone raise a doubt as to the parentage claimed for Lydia Peterson in the History of Duxbury.

On 9 April, 1694, Rodolphus Thacher and wife Ruth, of Duxbury, conveyed land to their son Thomas Thacher of Duxbury. Rodolphus Thacher of Chilmark, formerly of Duxbury, signed a deed on 5 June, 1694. Again, in 1707, Rodolphus Thacher and wife Ruth, of Chilmark, conveyed land. [Plym. Co. Deeds, III : 173, V : 220, X : 67.] Rodolphus Thacher removed, therefore, from Duxbury to Chilmark, on the island of Martha's Vineyard, in 1694, when his daughter Lydia was about fifteen years old, and I am now able to prove that she is the Lydia of the following note printed in the New England Historical and Genealogical Register, Vol. XIV, p. 12: "[From Chilmark Records: — 'Then was married John Deane and Lydia Thacher both of Lebanon in y^e^ Colony of Connecticut by James Allen, Esq., on Martha's Vineyard, on June 10 [— ?]' R. L. Pease. The year must have been as early as 1709. D.]."

"Silas Dean the of John Dean and Lydia his wife was born the 14 of September 1709" [Plainfield, Conn., Records, I : 10.]

"John dean Son to John dean and Lidyah his wife was born the twenty Seventh day of may : 1713

"Barzillai dean son to John dean and Lidyah dean his wife was born the twenty Eighth day of december : 1714

"Lydia Dean Daughter to John Dean & Lydia born April y^e^ 16^th^ : 1721

"Anna Deen Daughter to John Dean & Lidia Dean was born May the 27^th^ 1711. Deceased May y^e^ 29^th^ 1723.

"Barnabas Dean son of John Dean & Lidia Dean was born January the 31th 172$\frac{3}{4}$"

The births of John, Barzillai, Lydia, Anna and Barnabas are found on the thirty-first page (unnumbered) of the oldest book of vital records at Groton, Conn.

On 8 December, 1708, Thomas Thacher of Lebanon, Conn., conveyed land to "my Honoured ffather Mr Rhodolphus Thacher of Chillmark in Duke County" [Lebanon, Conn., Deeds, II : 114.]

On 17 April, 1733, John Dean of Groton conveys land to "my Dutifull Son Silas Dean of Groton" [Groton, Conn., Deeds, IV : 217.]

On 13 January 1746/7, Silas Dean conveyed to his brother, John Dean, Jr.; and John, Jr., conveyed to Silas, both being of Groton and the second deed covering land bounded north, east and south by land of Ensign John Dean. [Groton, Conn., Deeds, V : 79, 108.]

On 24 December, 1737, "Silas Dean John Dean Junr & Barzillai Dean all of Groton" sold to "our Honored Uncle Mr Thomas Thacher of Lebanon" all their rights "In or unto all the Land, which our Honored Grand father mr Rhodolphus Thacher Late of Groton abovesd deceased dyed seised of Lying In the Town of Lebanon" [Lebanon, Conn., Deeds, V : 405.]

"Mrs. Lydia Dean the wife of Ensign John Dean Deceased January the 15 : 1737." [From page 129 of book numbered I, Groton, Conn., Records.]

The copies and abstracts given furnish conclusive proof that Rodolphus Thacher's daughter Lydia married John Dean and not Jonathan Peterson.

Entered at the Boston, Mass., Post Office as second-class mail matter.

GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH

In any part of Plymouth, Barnstable, and Bristol Counties

Those desiring to have investigations made in this section will find it to their advantage to have the work done by the MASSACHUSETTS SOCIETY OF MAYFLOWER DESCENDANTS, which owns a large and rapidly increasing collection of abstracts of probate and land records, also of town, church, cemetery, and private records, and has developed many lines of Mayflower descent not yet printed.

All investigations are conducted under the personal supervision of the Editor, and all fees received are added to the Society's Colonial Research Fund.

Five Hundred Sets

...of...

Bowman's Ancestral Charts

...and...

Ten Copies of the Freeman Genealogy

Have been presented to the Massachusetts Society of Mayflower Descendants, to be sold and the receipts added to the

Cape Cod Town Record Fund

ANYONE who purchases $2.00 worth of these charts at one time may, within six months, fill in a part of them and send to the Editor to be examined free of charge for indications of Mayflower descent. The result of the examination will be reported to the sender. Many persons who have taken advantage of similar offers in the past have received very valuable information showing their connection with Mayflower passengers in lines they had been unable to trace.

One Set (17 Charts), postage prepaid, 50 cents
Three Sets (51 Charts), postage prepaid, $1.00
Six Sets (102 Charts), postage prepaid, $2.00

Freeman Genealogy

The majority of the persons mentioned in this book are descended from one or more Mayflower passengers. 458 pages. Price, $3.00.

HISTORY OF MIDDLEBORO

MASSACHUSETTS

MIDDLEBORO is in the heart of the Pilgrim Country, and its history, going back to the year of its settlement, is necessarily closely interlaced with the history of the Old Colony. The book includes a history of what is now the town of Lakeville, formerly a part of Middleboro, up to the time of separation of the two.

The author and compiler, Thomas Weston, Esq., of Newton, is a native and former resident of Middleboro and is well qualified for the task which he undertook. He has been ably assisted by members of the Committee and others, and after much study, research, and careful revision, the Committee feels that this history is as free from errors as is possible in a work of this character.

The illustrations are nearly all from photographs specially made for the purpose by an experienced photographer; the engravings therefrom have been made by the best engravers in the country under the supervision of a man who knows good work and will accept nothing but the best.

It is in one volume of about 750 pages, 6¼ x 9⅝, printed at the Riverside Press, on high grade paper, top edges gilded, bound in blue cloth and gold lettered.

The price is $5.00 net. Remittances should be made to the undersigned and should include postage (32c.), otherwise the book will be sent by express.
